

HELLO FROM THE NORTH POLE!!

Christmas time is here again! That means it's for me to move in! On Santa's behalf I will watch and listen, So I can report back what he is missing.

The Elf Magic happens when you are Good! So listen to your parents like you should, To keep the magic alive and your Elf safe, keep your hands to yourself for goodness sake!

If you do as you're told, you'll find me each day in a new place having fun or waiting to play. Watch for my notes, and as Christmas draws near, open your eyes to the sky and hear the reindeer with your ears!

xoxo,
Your Elf
