

Hello There,

MY WONDERFUL FRIEND!

Guess who's back from the North Pole? Me!

I've been helping Santa with toy testing, cookie sampling (a very serious job!), and a tiny bit of elf mischief along the way.

Before I arrived, the other elves asked me the big North Pole question of the season:

"Are you more of a 6 or a 7 today?"

Well... I told them I'm feeling like both! A little silly, a little sparkly, and VERY excited to spend this holiday season with you.

I'm here to watch, learn, play, and sprinkle kindness all over your home. You'll find me in different places each morning—sometimes investigating, sometimes relaxing, sometimes accidentally causing tiny elf-sized chaos.

Remember:

-  Be kind
-  Try your best
-  And believe in the magic all around you

Let's make this our best Christmas season ever... maybe even a solid 6-7 out of 7!

See you tomorrow morning!
Your Elf Friend,

My Dear Friend

It's almost time for me to fly back to the North Pole—Santa needs all elves on deck for the big night!

Before I go, I wanted to tell you how proud I am of you. I've seen kindness, creativity, giggles, teamwork, and moments that would make even the grumpiest elf smile.

This season, you made every day feel like a perfect mix of 6 and 7—a little silly, a little wonderful, and full of surprises. That's the kind of magic the North Pole loves most.

I'll be cheering for you from Elf Headquarters and telling Santa all the amazing things I saw while I stayed here. Keep shining bright, keep being kind, and keep that Christmas magic glowing in your heart all year long.

I'll see you again next Christmas—and I can't WAIT to find out whether next year feels more like a 6... a 7... or a little bit of BOTH again!

With peppermint hugs and snowflake wishes,
Your Elf,
